Pastor Leonid Arrives Stateside

What a thrill to have Pastor Leonid come and share with us about the lives of the children at the Awakening Orphanage and to understand some of the challenges they face on a daily basis. Then to explore potential areas where we can join together in developing training programs to help give them hope for future employment opportunities. Thanks to Alex & Elena Litovchenko for the many hours of interpreting & providing transportation.

A Welcomed Sight

Thanks to Dr. Andrew Noble, Randy Linaman, and The Pacific Eye Care Team in Poulsbo, Pastor Leonid was properly fitted for a much needed, and impressive pair of eye glasses.

Please Help Us Be Prepared for Cold, Icy, Weather!

We asked Pastor Leonid, "If you could ask for anything, what would you want most?" He bowed his head and quietly responded, not for himself, "The children are in desperate need of winter boots & clothing!" With sub-zero temperatures, the walk to school over 1/4 mile away, and the poor quality of items purchased in Ukraine, they struggle miserably to stay warm.

We would like to purchase boots, hats, gloves, & scarves here to send for their Christmas this year. If you can help, we will be collecting funds through Dec. 24th.
